

Session 6 24th February 2009

Housing Capacity and site identification. Capacity studies – assessing site potential and appropriate development, with a bit about housing need and demand

Session 7 10th March 2009

Planning Obligations and Development Viability. Development appraisal Toolkits – their use and limitations

Session 8 24th March 2009

Preconditions for Sustainable Development :. Planning for Social Infrastructure: Education, Health, Leisure

Integrated planning and why it doesn't happen often enough.

The cost of each session will be £40 per person. The full programme can be prebooked for £250,

The course is available at no charge to students on existing courses at London Metropolitan University.

THE LECTURER

Duncan Bowie is Reader in Urban Planning and Regeneration at London Metropolitan University, attached to the Department of Architecture and Spatial Design and the Department of Applied Social Sciences. He has nearly thirty years of experience of planning and housing policy and practice in London, including being principal strategic planner for housing for the Mayor of London, London investment director for the Housing Corporation, Housing policy manager for the Association of London Government/London Councils and Head of Social housing for the London Docklands Development Corporation.

Each seminar will comprise a presentation by Duncan Bowie, Reader in Urban Planning and Regeneration, with time for questions and discussion. Full lecture notes and reading lists will be available at each session.

VENUE AND DATES

The lectures will take place on alternative Tuesday evenings from 6pm to 8pm in Room TM1-12 at the Tower Building, London Metropolitan University, 166-220 Holloway Road, N7 (opposite Holloway Road underground station on the Piccadilly line; 10 minute walk from Highbury and Islington (BR and Victoria line))